32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

11 November 2018

From Fr Brian:

During the week, several Companies, who are interested in placing a tender to 'Earthquake Strengthen' the Basilica, inspected the building. They had previously met with the architect and Diocesan Staff. So things are moving.

There are only 20 tickets left in the Christmas Cake x 3 Raffle; the Parish is thankful to Anne O'Connell, Marlene Shewan & Josie Towler for their 'Master Baker Christmas Cakes'.

Parishioners can still drop off old notes & coins to redeem at the Reserve Bank in Wellington, I have $250 in 5c coins waiting to go to the Reserve Bank; plus foreign coins that can be redeemed. Redundant coins are forwarded to the Lions for their Project.

So far over $600 has been collected for the Earthquake Strengthening Campaign from 'dead money'.

We will be joining the Priests' Annual Retreat in Christchurch during the week 19 - 23 November; one of us will get the 'short straw' if there is a need to return to the Parish.

The last Baptismal Preparation Meeting for parents wishing to have a child baptised begins this Sunday, 11 November, 7.00pm - 8.15pm, at St Thomas' Church lounge. Contact either the Parish Office, or Fr Brian to enrol. This will be the last Baptismal Preparation Programme until February 2019.

This Sunday, 11 November is the 100th Commemoration of the Liberation of Le Quesnoy (4th November 1918) and Armistice Day. There will be a Memorial Service adjacent to the Cenotaph, beginning at 10.45am. The Mayor & MP will be present, Jayden Walker is going to sing.

BEREAVEMENT MASS in Timaru will be this Wednesday 14 November, 7.00pm, at Sacred Heart Basilica; there will be a cuppa in the presbytery after Mass. At this Mass, we remember parishioners who have died during the past 12 months.

Thursday 29 November, 10.30am – Margaret Wilson Home

Thursday 6 December, 10.30am – Elloughton Gardens.
